

SKILL SHARER

VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

YOUTH TUTORING PROGRAM at Seola Gardens

BACKGROUND AND PROGRAM SCOPE

Neighborhood House partners with diverse communities of people with limited resources to attain their goals for self-sufficiency, financial independence health and community building. At Neighborhood House, we have a deep commitment to valuing our employees', volunteers', and clients' diverse experiences and backgrounds, which guide our work for a more equitable future.

Neighborhood House's Youth Engagement Program offers academic assistance, engagement through project based learning and social emotional learning, as well as other supports to youth and their families. We are seeking volunteers to engage with youth in grades K-12 to teach a new skill or activity. Some examples include: If you are really passionate about fitness you could teach a series of at-home workouts! If you are a crafter and want to share out how to crochet, we can have a class on that! Professional photographers that can teach youth how to take expert photos with the phone cameras! The possibilities are endless in this remote setting. If reasonable, supplies can be distributed to youth to make sessions interactive.
